

WEAAD 2014 Forum

Human Rights Are Ageless

Monday June 16, 9am—3.30pm

Victoria University Convention Centre

Level 12, 300 Flinders St, City

Keynote speakers:

- ♦ Associate Professor Cheryl Tilse, School of Social Work and Human Services and chief investigator of the Assets and Ageing Research Program at the University of Queensland.
- ♦ John Chesterman, Churchill Fellow and Manager of Policy and Education at the Victoria Office of the Public Advocate.
- ♦ Janet Wood, Chairperson, Human Rights Sub-Committee, COTA Vic.

Topics include:

- * Human rights and ageism
- * Intergenerational asset management
- * Responding to violence, abuse, exploitation and neglect
- * Developing policy and practice from research
- * The role of supported decision making and guardianship – who decides?

Interactive workshop sessions discussing a case study will draw on the experience and knowledge of participants and expert panel members.

Register now: visit www.weaad.org.au/forum or phone Gary Ferguson on 03 9655 2112

Proudly hosted by Seniors Rights Victoria

